RAIN, RAIN, GO AWAY

Seventeen year old Rain Caulfield braces herself for the start of eleventh grade. While her mother is at home dying of cancer, Rain must navigate through the halls of her high school which are filled with people who hate her. Bullied and abused, she collapses into herself and must either succumb to her tormentors or lift herself out of the ashes of her destroyed body and mind. An honest, branding, and sometimes terrifying look into the lives of children who are bullied at school, and the permanent and everlasting effects such abuse can have.
