Routledge A critical cultural materialist introduction to the study of global entertainment media. In Global Entertainment Media, Tanner Mirrlees undertakes an analysis of the ownership, production, distribution, marketing, exhibition and consumption of global films and television shows, with an eye to political economy and cultural studies. Among other topics, Mirrlees examines: Paradigms of global entertainment media such as cultural imperialism and cultural globalization. The business of entertainment media: the structure of capitalist culture/creative industries

(financers, producers, distributors and exhibitors) and trends in the global political economy of entertainment media. The "governance" of global entertainment media: state and inter-state media and cultural policies and regulations that govern the production, distribution and exhibition of entertainment media and enable or impede its cross-border flow. The new international division of cultural labor (NICL): the cross-border production of entertainment by cultural workers in asymmetrically interdependent media capitals, and economic and cultural concerns surrounding runaway productions and co-productions. The economic motivations and textual design features of globally popular entertainment forms such as blockbuster event films, TV formats, glocalised lifestyle brands and synergistic media. Radar Instruction Manual

Since 1958 the Maritime Administration has continuously conducted instructions in use of collision avoidance radar for qualified U.S. seafaring personnel and representatives of interested Federal and State Agencies. Beginning in 1963, to facilitate the expansion of training capabilities and at the same time to provide the most modern techniques in training methods, radar simulators were installed in Maritime Administration's three region schools. It soon became apparent that to properly instruct the trainees, even with the advanced equipment, a standardized up-to-date instruction manual was needed. The first manual was later revised to serve both as a classroom textbook and as an onboard reference handbook. This newly updated manual, the fourth revision, in keeping with Maritime Administration policy, has been restructured to include improved and more effective methods of plotting techniques for use in Ocean, Great Lakes, Coastwise and Inland Waters navigation. Robert J. Blackwell Assistant Secretary for Maritime Affairs

Cold Hard Truth

On Business, Money & Life

Doubleday Canada Kevin O'Leary shares invaluable secrets on entrepreneurship, business, money and life. Can you make millions just by "visualizing yourself rich" as some business prophets suggest? Don't buy it, says Kevin O'Leary. If you want to be a successful entrepreneur and amass wealth, you're going to have to work for it. But the good news is: with the right guidance, focus and perseverance, you can turn entrepreneurial vision into lucrative reality and have the personal freedom that only wealth can buy. Kevin O'Leary would know. The much-feared and revered Dragon on the immensely popular show Dragons' Den (and Shark Tank in the U.S.) started his company in his basement with a $10,000 loan from his financially savvy mother. A few years later, Kevin sold that company for more than four billion dollars. In this compelling, candid and, above all else, brutally honest business memoir, Kevin provides engaging, practical advice and lessons that will give anyone a distinct competitive edge.

Twelve Years a Slave

Prabhat Prakashan "Having been born a freeman, and for more than thirty years enjoyed the blessings of liberty in a free State—and having at the end of that time been kidnapped and sold into Slavery, where I remained, until happily rescued in the month of January, 1853, after a bondage of twelve years—it has been suggested that an account of my life and fortunes would not be uninteresting to the public." -an excerpt

Alone

Sourcebooks, Inc. This must-read for lovers of Stephen King's The Shining will leave readers breathless as Seda and her family find themselves at the mercy of a murderer in an isolated and snowbound hotel. Get ready for what Kirkus calls "A bloody, wonderfully creepy scare ride." When her mom inherits an old, crumbling mansion, Seda's almost excited to spend the summer there. The grounds are beautiful and it's fun to explore the sprawling house with its creepy rooms and secret passages. Except now her mom wants to renovate, rather than sell the estate—which means they're not going back to the city...or Seda's friends and school. As the days grow shorter, Seda is filled with dread. They're about to be cut off from the outside world, and she's not sure she can handle the solitude or the darkness it brings out in her. Then a group of teens get stranded near the mansion during a blizzard. Seda has no choice but to offer them shelter, even though she knows danger lurks in the dilapidated mansion—and in herself. And as the snow continues to fall, what Seda fears most is about to become her reality...

Unstoppable

Unstoppable is a word defined as "difficult or impossible to preclude or stop." As a human quality, it is something that we associate with people such as sports superstars, those who do whatever it takes to inspire others and lead teams to the greatest of victories. Sometimes, an idea or person can become unstoppable. Unstoppable, like Charles Lindbergh crossing the Atlantic in a solo flight when no one had thought it was possible, or track star Roger Bannister breaking the four-minute mile barrier. Not everyone can be an explorer or a great athlete, but anyone can be unstoppable in their chosen endeavors in life. If you are willing to possess an unwavering determination to succeed and a consistent willingness to learn and evolve, you can become unstoppable and triumph too. This book is about a personal struggle, one in which the author awoke from a coma after a terrible accident and faced a life of permanent paralysis. A long battle of driven determination resulted in Yanni Raz regaining his health and becoming a self-made millionaire after migrating from his native Israel to the United States. Through careers as a musician, a Starbucks barista, a salesman, a real estate whiz, a professional poker player and a hard money lender, Yanni learned reliable principles and the skills necessary for success. Unstoppable covers many topics including controlling your life, making the best decisions, creating new opportunities, properly assessing signals, expertly negotiating, and succeeding by storytelling across the media landscape. You'll learn about integrity in business, asset diversification, and many other life tips that thousands of people learn from Yanni on a daily basis. It is time to become fearless and lead a powerful life. With Yanni's new book Unstoppable, you can do just that.
